Author / Storyteller

BIO

Jordan Schliebe is a lifelong enthusiast of fantasy and science fiction, forever chasing the magic that happens when words open a doorway to another world. Whether she's binge-watching her favorite anime, rolling dice in a Dungeons & Dragons campaign, or devouring the latest novel from the authors who first set her imagination on fire!

She believes the best stories are lifelines, full of heroes worth cheering for, friendships that leap off the page, and that perfect escape or spark of hope we all need on the hardest days.

Jordan pours everything she loves onto the page, and is endlessly grateful to every single reader who takes a chance on her books!
